

Breaking Down Barriers Toolkit

Empowering Nurse Leaders in Workforce Technology Decisions

Nurse leaders and clinicians stand at the forefront of transformative change, yet often find themselves excluded from pivotal decisions concerning workforce management technology. It's time to challenge this status quo and ensure nurse leaders have a seat at the table where these critical decisions are made.

This toolkit – focused specifically on the technology decision process – provides resources to elevate your voice and incorporate the nurses’ viewpoint into larger discussions. Click on each item for more details.
